

Greenwood City

— Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres. —

May is truly the prime of spring, a period that bridges the gap between winter and summer. This fifth month is one of the year's loveliest. It is a lovely month because when dawn begins to caress the earth, all about birds tune their voices for a morning symphony. This welcome of the day comes from gardens, fields, and woods. It's a stirring tune on the awakening world as the sun's rays pierce through mists which are beginning to lift.

The music means a new season, as earth responds. So long the trees have stood etched against the sky. It is thrilling to see them put on their summer raiment.

This a region of natural beauty with a quiet charm. Two different days this week I have enjoyed it from my boat on the pond and up the Sanborn River. I never write about or go to the Sanborn but I think of my two friends of Flagstones, Port Arthur, N. Y., and their many articles they sent me. One fitted with what I saw today. "The Feather," by Carol Knauth. Here are just a few lines.

"Perfect small feather, many branched And the branches branched and Each minuscule member a tiny part of design
And every feather of the thousand feathers

Covering a small, throbbing vessel of round, pure, golden notes of song
That is carried aloft on light thrush wings—

As I turned at the mouth and swung into the current, I headed north and west. A few ducks alarmed by my passing, took wing and flew up the river. I saw a turtle sunning itself on a log.

In places the banks were heavily forested. At other times I passed growth of tall grass and ferns that bent and lifted with the wind in rhythmic waves like the waves of the ocean, a green sea breaking around the roots of the forest.

Each year some new branch has plunged down. I rowed by one with gnarled and twisted limbs lodged among ferns and mosses.

Beyond this I came upon a bright rosebreasted grosbeak which dropped down in a shaft of sunlight and alighted on a bush. He sat quietly for a time then hopped down to the ground looking in all directions. I then became aware of his somber colored mate, who was perched some distance away. After a minute she joined him and they continued to search their surroundings for any sign of danger—at least that was my thought.

For a time I sat and watched the play of woodland life in this undisturbed and isolated habitat.
Near the shore I heard the chirps and flutterings of Red Wings.

I turned my boat down stream but my short excursion had been fascinating.

The waters sparkled under the sun's brightness, as if set with a thousand gems.

Fishing and scenery were my two interesting things. Who wants more?

When day was done, thin gray shadows began to inch across the landscape; the evening chorus began. My birds like either end of the day be it dawn or when gray dusk deepens into night.

What one place in this great world where one feels freedom of strain and laughs and basks in its grand light is there than this,
My Maine.

Eva Felton was again taken by ambulance to Stephens Memorial Hospital this week and her husband was returned to Ledgewick in West Paris.

Vance and Connie Bacon are to be honored on their 25th wedding anniversary on May 31 at SUFAPWSP, the home of John and Dot Betts, with open house from 4 to 8 p. m.

Glenn Hayes and family, Gray, were at the Hayes Homestead for the day on Saturday. On Sunday Rolly and Doris, spent the day with Ardell and Betty Hayes in Auburn.

CARD OF THANKS
I would like to thank my friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness shown my wife and me while I was a patient at the Rum-ford Community Hospital. Thanks for the flowers, letters and cards, to the Ladies Circle for the fruit,
to the Bethel Ambulance Service, the doctors, nurses and aides for their excellent care. Thanks to all who helped in any way.

Northwest Bethel

— Clarice Gibson, Corres. —

The warm weather of the last week have opened up the wild cherries, plums, violets and other blossoms. Today it is raining and Sunday was a cool, rainy day.
Saturday, though, was one of those spring days we all can enjoy. The winter seems to have raised havoc with some of the perennials. Roses seem to have been the hardest hit. Our high bush blueberries seem to be all dead; but hope it didn't hurt the low bush ones.

Andy Benson is through this year's studies at UMO. He had dinner Sunday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brown and left Monday for a two weeks German Seminar at Owl's Head.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hannon went to the wedding Saturday of Russell Palmer and Shelley Roy at West Parish Congregational Church in Bethel. She is spending a lot of their time taking the girls to recital practice and he with his baseball games, coaching at Middle School.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Murphy and Chandra were week end guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murphy, Mother's Day week end.

Last week end Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Murphy had as guests her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs.
Paul Greenberg and Debbie of Dracut, Mass.

Amy Laban, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Laban, recently celebrated her seventh birthday with a birthday supper and party at her parents. Of course cake and ice cream were also served. Those attending were Emily Keyes, Sarah Kailey, Lorena Conant, Martha Newell, Lisa Thurston and brothers, Matthew and Christopher.

Saturday, the John Laban family celebrated Matthew's 11th birthday by going to L. L. Bean's, Freeport, where Matthew picked himself out a fly fishing rod, fly tying kit and tackle box. They then met Sue's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Casey of Massachusetts and the families ate at Dunphy's.

Doug Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith is home for the summer.

Bruce, Betty Smith and two boys were up for dinner last week end to his parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Homer Smith's.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Angevine and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Angevine went to Lancaster, N. H., to visit Connie Angevine.

Kristy Angevine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Angevine, spent Friday night with her friend, Susan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Malcolm Gould.

Jimmy McDougall and Ricky Angevine went hornpouting Saturday evening.

Pat Anderson went to Bible Study Wednesday evening at Stephanie Yates and church Sunday at Rumford Corner.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis Kimball, Chantal and Anita were Wednesday night supper guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benson.

Saturday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. John Wight of Newry, called on Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mason Jr. had a family get-together at Ben Gordon's camp on the mountain.

Tuesday, the 13th I went in to see Mrs. Evelyn Hilborn and friend, Miss Ellen Tuck. I had a very enjoyable visit. The 14th the ladies took a trip to the coast, stopping at Freeport, Yarmouth and Great Neck State Park. They came back route 113. Sunday they once again enjoyed their dinner at Philbrook Inn, Shelburne, N. H.
Ricky Angevine painted the porch and the ladies are enjoying watching a family of phoebes, which are living underneath the eaves and swallows which are nesting in back of the house.

Tom Gibbs took Linda to Rum-ford to "Coalminer's Daughter" the Saturday evening before Mother's Day and they ate at McDonald's. Heather went with Grammie and Grampa (Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gibbs) to Berlin, N. H., shopping and to Northlands for supper.

Mrs. Guy Gibbs will have her son, Danny, and son, Tommy and family for dinner, cake and ice cream on May 19 to celebrate Guy Gibbs' birthday.

Mrs. Leslie Lapham went to the Senior Citizens' monthly meeting, May 14, at Sunday River Inn. She is a charter member.

Mr. and Mrs. James Monahan attended the State Democratic Convention in Bangor from Friday to Sunday and stayed at Budget Motor Inn.

Most everyone took advantage of the warm weather Saturday to get their gardens ready for planting.

The Only Way to Have a Friend
Is to be one yourself.
The only way to keep a friend
Is to give from that wealth.
For friendship must be double fold.

Each one must give his share Of feelings true if we would reap
The blessings that are there.
If you would say, "He is my friend,"
Then nothing will do But you must say, "I am his friend,"
And prove that fact be true.

Newry

— Miss Amy Hanscom, Corres. —

Bible classes are being held at Newry Community Church Tuesday evenings at 7 beginning this week.

Mrs. Karlene Bachelder, Heidi, and Brent, attended graduation exercises at Westbrook College Saturday evening, where Claire Bach-elder O'Donnell received an associate degree in nursing.

Alberta Lane is ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rae Bartholomew. Cards would be appreciated.

Dick and Myrt Dickey, Whitman, Mass., were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lee Swan.

Sylvia Harrington visited her son, Mark, in Portland, recently.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Newell, Bethel, called on Amy and Roger Hanscom Sunday afternoon.

Roy Bennett returned home from the Rumford Community Hospital, May 15. He had been a patient there since April 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wight were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Wight and family, Dover-Foxcroft, Friday, and attended the graduation of their daughter, Gretchen, from the U. M. O. Saturday.

Miss Gretchen Wight spent a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wight, the first of the week. She left for Ogunquit where she has employment for the summer, Wednesday.

The Assessors have set the tax rate at $13 per thousand on an assessed valuation of $8,391,800 for a total tax commitment of $109,093.40. Of this amount $102, 800.45 is real estate and $6,292.95 personal. Non residents pay $68, 149.25, residents $40,944.15. An additional $1,275.212, in valuation is lost under the Tree Growth Tax Law. With this additional valuation, the tax rate could have been $11.20 per thousand. School assessments account for 65.6% of the commitment, local appropriations and overlay of 29.8% and County Tax 4.6%. Loss in taxes under Tree Growth for 1980 is $16,577.77. Of this amount, $4,571.
22 is to be reimbursed by the State by law if and when the money is available. In 1979 $15,087.78 was lost under Tree Growth, $5,579.91 was to have been reimbursed. In December 1979, a check was received for $2,907.41 of this amount. This represented eleven cents per acre for land under Tree Growth. Since the State was short of funds and not enough money remained in the account to pay the balance, the Legislature passed a Resolve that only 85.5% of the balance would be paid. Newry assessor, Roger Hanscom, said that this is just another example of the State failing to meet their obligations and placing additional burdens on municipalities.

Under the Tree Growth Law, Municipalities are to be reimbursed for loss from the 1972 tax on under Tree Growth in the current year, less 10% of the 1972 tax on same, or eleven cents per acre, whichever is greater. Although the Legislature has twice passed laws that the reimbursement should be made in the year of the loss, only 11 cents per acre is made during that year, with the balance made later, if funds are available. In 1979, Newry's reimbursement for 1978 loss was $649, short, and it was not until Hanscom had battled with the State Bureau of Taxation, then Governor Brennan for several months that the shortage was made up. The estimated shortage in State funds for Tree Growth Reimbursement for 1979 loss is $25,000, and instead of appropriating additional funds, the Legislature simply passed a resolve to refund only 85.5% of the amount due. Hanscom said he felt that if the State could not meet its obligations and make the reimbursement required by law, that they should repeal the Tree Growth Law. Hanscom said that the Tree Growth Law was a hardship to other property owners, especially low income home owners. In many municipalities only a small portion of the loss is reimbursed, he said.

A group known as HALT (Help Alleviate Local Taxes), together with the Maine Municipal Association, has agreed to organize a petition drive to seek repeal of the Tree Growth Law. An organizational meeting will be held at the Maine Municipal Building in Augusta on May 22. Municipal officials through the State are urged to attend and help with the effort to get this drive underway. The Tree Growth Tax Law, which came into effect in 1973, places a much lower valuation on woodlands which come under the law, thereby an extra burden on other taxpayers. In Newry this year, this extra tax amounts to 13.8%. A taxpayer with a $30,000 home, for example will have a tax bill of $390. Without Tree Growth the tax would be $336. This means the taxpayer is paying $336, tax of their own, plus $54, tax to make up for what some large woodland owner is not paying under Tree Growth. Currently there are 28 owners with 48 lots with a total of 26,367 acres under Tree Growth. The Tree Growth value is $834,137.90. Without Tree Growth the value would be $2,109, 360, a loss of $1,275,222 in valuation and $16,577.90 in taxes.
$4,571 of this loss is to be reimbursed by the State if the money is available.

In 1979 $579.91 was to have been reimbursed, but because of a shortage of funds in the account, the Legislature instead of facing their responsibilities and appropriating additional money, passed a resolve to only reimburse a portion of the amount due. Newry received $5,192.36, leaving a shortage of $387.55. There could be an even greater shortage in future reimbursements, or no reimbursements at all. Home owners who would like to see the Tree Growth Law repealed and are willing to aid in getting signatures on petitions should contact their Municipal officers or HALT c/o the Maine Municipal Association, Augusta, Maine. Newry woodlands under Tree Growth are divided as follows: Non resident, 21 owners, 33 lots, 24,622 acres, Tree Growth value $765,579.90, value not under Tree Growth $1,969,760. Resident, 7 owners, 13 lots, 1,745 acres, Tree Growth value $68,558. Value not under Tree Growth $139,600.

The special town meeting was held Monday evening, May 19, with approximately 25 voters in attendance. Stephen Wight was elected moderator. Voted were changes in town road specifications as proposed by the planning board and selectmen. These include stipulations that a dead end road must have a paved cul de sac with a minimal radius of 50 feet, ditches must have a minimum slope of three feet horizontal to one foot vertical and a mulch compacted to at least 1 1/2 inches must be applied to the road surface. Also approved were a site plan review ordinance and additional appropriations of $626 to the Bethel Ambulance Service and $200 to the Workmen's compensation account.

DAWN MYERS CELEBRATES

BIRTHDAY WITH FRIENDS

IN SMURFSVILLE

What's a Smurf? They are tiny blue people who live in mushroom houses. They are friendly, loyal, kind, and always on the lookout for new friends. You'll find they are good listeners, great companions and energetic playmates.

Dawn and friends, Kim, Jessica, Eva, Marybeth, Sallie, Lisa, Penny, Jennifer and Donna, got packed like sardines in a Smurfmobile truck and headed for Rumford, Saturday, May 17. There they received clues which led them to a human smurf, (dressed up of course). They played games like Smurf says, tape the nose on Smurf, Smurfing dance contest, a Smurf tongue twister and a delicious Smurfete cake made by Debbie Adams.

Thanks to Joanne Dupuis of Rumford and her family's help, Debbie and others, this was really a fun birthday party.

to obtain input on the project from local citizens. As considerable interest in the project has been expressed, the Selectmen scheduled a special town meeting for Tuesday, May 27, at 7 p. m. in the Fire Station.

The warrant article concerning this issue will read as follows: "To decide whether to allow a representative of the Maine State Housing Authority to meet and discuss with the local governing body concerning permissible and preferred developers, housing management entities, and sites, in anticipation of a preliminary designation of a proposed project."

The Selectmen spent the remainder of the evening reviewing projects and activities for 1980. After reviewing more than 45 items, the Board listed the following 10 projects and activities as priorities: Bennett Road Land Acquisition, Dog Ordinance, Traffic Ordinance, Highway Garage and Ambulance Space, Main St. Sidewalk Reconstruction, the development of a Capital Improvement Program, Sewer System Upgrade Planning, Improved police protection through emphasis on crime prevention and the Neighborhood Watch Program and a Sewer rate study.

proposed policy on "attendance" was returned to the Policy Committee for further study.

A "Policy for the Conduct of Home Instruction Programs" was granted initial "first reading" approval by the board.

Authorization was granted to post the following athletic coaching positions for the fall of the 1980-81 school year: T.R.H.S.—athletic director, varsity football, junior varsity football, varsity field hockey, junior varsity field hockey, varsity cross country, varsity soccer, varsity football cheerleading; Middle School—field hockey, assistant field hockey, head soccer, assistant soccer. ("—position to be filled only if 30 or more students participating.)

The board authorized the rescheduling of the June 2 regular meeting of the directors to Tuesday, June 3, for a presentation by Dr. Ray Taylor, currently Skowhegan area superintendent, to the board.

An overview of the S. A. D. #44 special education program was presented by Mrs. Rosemarie Hirshey, Psychological Evaluator. Mrs. Hirshey introduced the special education teachers who were in attendance: Denise Brown, Natalie Timmerlake, Ann Holt, Barbara Sablin and Kay Swain. Mrs. Hirshey went on to explain the Pupil Evaluation Team (P.E.T.) process and the procedures through which a child is evaluated. She stressed that the parent is a very important member of the team and that parental approval is required for every step in the program. The team works closely with the parents and the child. The program is specially suited to the child's needs. Mrs. Hirshey reported that the State Evaluation team had recently been in the District and had given the program high commendations. The special education teachers in the District were commended also by Mrs. Hirshey for their efforts in the program.

Before the meeting's close a 30-minute executive session was held to discuss matters pertaining to personnel.

At the start of the meeting Supt. Kenneth Smith introduced Dr. Harry Dresser, recently named by the Bethel Selectmen to complete the term of Paul Bodwell, who resigned to accept a position with S. A. D. #44.

Woodstock board member Sheryl Wilbur was absent Monday evening.

GOULD TRUSTEES HOLD SPRING MEETING

The Board of Trustees of Gould Academy met for their Annual Spring meeting on May 16-17, on campus. Committee meetings were held with faculty, administrators, and students all day on Friday, covering such areas as education, student life, development, long-range planning and buildings and grounds. A dinner hosted by Headmaster Donald W. Fudge and his wife, Dorla, was held prior to the musical operetta "The Pirates of Penzance" put on by the Gould Drama Department under the direction of Mrs. Carol Fiske. The operetta was a huge success and saw both students and faculty in leading and supporting roles. A faculty-trustee reception was held after the play, again hosted by the Fudges.

Saturday began with some trustees rising early to drive to Andover to inspect a wood-fueled boiler system. A similar system to be used to heat Gould's buildings and dormitories is under consideration and was one of the main topics discussed at the full Board meeting later that morning.

An informal breakfast was then held in Gould's Gehring Hall dining room and afforded the trustees and faculty another opportunity to socialize and to talk about the Academy.

At 9 a. m., the Board met for three and a half hours covering such topics as Energy Conservation, establishment of a Summer School in 1981, Gould's recent 10 year accreditation from the New England Association of Schools and Colleges, an Educational and/or Business Computer, and the Long-

Letters to the Editor

May 20, 1980

To the Editor:

In the wake of the fountain's removal from the Bethel Common, it seems time to get some definite ideas about a replacement fountain or alternatives which the people of Bethel have in mind but are as yet unexpressed.

The Town of Bethel has appointed an advisory committee on the Common. As one of its members, I am interested in learning of specific proposals for a new fountain. Through the equipment catalogs available in the Bethel Water District, I have learned that a recycling pump system is not prohibitively expensive to install. The key issue on a new fountain it seems is how it should look and how big the base should be. Obviously, there are a range of style and price options all of which must be eventually considered by the town and any action to replace the fountain would require a special town meeting.

The role I hope to play is two part: (1) I would be glad to receive phone calls, letters and/or stop-me-on-the-street-messages about individual feelings in this matter; (2) I would be glad to help in sketching a pen and ink drawing of the various styles of new fountain which might be considered by the town. Based on past discussions, any final consideration for an addition to the Common would require a sketch of some kind.

Sincerely,
Donald G. Bennett

To whom it may concern:

To the person who was involved in the throwing of a bottle out of a moving car at approximately 6:30 p. m. Saturday evening, May 17, 1980, near the Sunday River area and hurt a young girl on the arm while she was driving in the opposite direction, I feel that teenagers should have more control over their actions and that concerned parents should have more control over their teen-agers.

This could have been a very serious accident, if the young lady had lost control of her brand new Mercury which she had earned the money herself with a lot of hard work and determination. She was lucky that the damage to herself and her car was not too much.

Why do we, as the victims, have to put up with this type of person? Where is the guilty conscience of this person and can he live with himself knowing that he could have caused an extremely serious situation.

You young people who want to be treated as an adult, why don't you grow up and act like an adult?

A concerned parent
Dorothy Stearns

To whom it may concern:

My deepest sympathy to the insensitive person or persons, who cut down and stole the American Flag from my lawn.

First, it is the flag of our country; secondly it has an invaluable meaning to me; it was given to my late husband, Paul, as a birthday gift, and he valued it very highly.

Range Direction of the School in the 80's.

Dexter Stowell, Gould '46, a trustee for nineteen years, was honored by the group on his retirement from the Board. Mr. Stowell had been the secretary of the board; and in addition to being a graduate of the Academy, his three daughters are all, or will be, Gould Alumni. His youngest, Nancy, will finish her four years at Gould on Commencement Day, May 31, when she delivers her valedictory address.

The next full Board meeting of the Gould Trustees will be held in Bethel next fall.

MOLLOCKETT MIXERS HOLDING 10th ANNIVERSARY DANCE SATURDAY, MAY 24

The Mollockett Mixers will hold a 10th anniversary dance Saturday, May 24, at the Rumford Center Elementary School from 8 to 11 p. m. ## SENIOR PROJECTS AT GOULD

Once again, spring is the time for Gould Academy seniors to elect to end their formal classes early and participate in Senior May Projects. These three-week work/study "mini" courses this year include carpentry, working as nurse's aides, teaching assistants, veterinary assistants, politics, on the Appalachian Trail, also working in chemistry, marine biology, silversmithing and pottery.

The philosophy and rationale behind these projects is to provide students with an opportunity to pursue in depth an area of interest that they could not normally carry out within the curriculum of the Academy. Many projects are carried out right on the Gould campus, with others taking place in Washington, D. C., northern Ontario, France, Boston, Florida, Berlin, N. H. and the coast of Maine.

Two students, Sarah Diston from the Bahamas and Jane Robinson, Boothbay, have constructed a special salt glaze catenary arch kiln and will make and fire pottery, while Nancy Stowell, from Bethel, will travel to Washington, D. C. to serve as an intern with Congresswoman Olympia Snowe. Another Washington bound girl, Ellen Terry, Purcellville, Va., will be working for the Inter-American Defense Board. Marilyn Barry, West Chester, Pa., is spending her Senior Project time on Hurricane Island, at Maine's Outward Bound School on a special scholarship. A county-wide project involves Lisa Fawcett, Weston, Mass., Jim Kowalski, Wayland, Mass., and Nora Murphy, P. E. I., Canada, who are working with the Bethel Historical Society's survey of the architecture of Oxford County. Two others, Robie Feola, Vernon, Vt., and Karen Pollenston, Manlius, N. Y., are learning the veterinarian's trade, Robie assisting Bethel's vet, Dr. James Hudson, and Karen working for a vet in her home town.

These are just a few of the interesting activities Gould Seniors are engaged in this year. At the completion of their project each student will produce a "finished" report, either in the form of a daily journal, written report or completed art work, such as pottery, jewelry or glass. Both students and faculty are enthusiastic about the program that has been on-going for some years. It provides a transition from the structured curriculum at Gould and the less formal college atmosphere they will encounter next fall. Not all Seniors elect to take a Senior Project, nor do all that apply have their project accepted. The sponsors, outlines and deadlines, etc., to be met beginning in the fall are all evaluated by a faculty-student Senior May Project committee and only those deemed

PINE TREE QUILTERS MEET IN AUGUSTA

The State meeting of the Pine Tree Quilters Guild was held in Augusta, Saturday, May 17, 9:30-2:30. Representatives of the Bethel Chapter attended. A business meeting was followed by a slide and lecture presentation of "Multi-layered Applique" by nationally known artist Jo Diggs, now a Maine resident.

The Guild's Quilt Show 1980 will be held at Bowdoin College in Brunswick, Aug. 8, 9 and 10. Offered at the quilt show will be two workshops in "Design Manipulation" by Alice Newton and "Original Quilt Design" by Beth and Jeffrey Gutcheon.

Registration information for the workshops may be obtained by sending a legal size self-addressed stamped envelope to Shirley Voight, Old Portland Rd., Brunswick, Maine 04011. Anyone wishing to display quilts at the show should also make arrangements through Shirley or a local member of Pine Tree Quilters Guild.

PETER WINSLOW ENLISTS IN NAVY'S SEAMAN/AIRMAN DELAYED ENTRY PROGRAM

Peter V. Winslow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence W. Winslow has enlisted in the Navy's Seaman/Airman Program under the delayed entry option on May 16, 1980. Following recruit training Winslow will attend Airman apprentice training where he will learn aviation theory and fundamentals.

educationally sound are approved. The projects end just before Gould's commencement exercises on May 31.

"Great Keg Kaper"

The Telstar Sports Boosters Club and Mothers' of Bethel announced jointly today that they will co-sponsor the 1980 Great Keg Kaper.
This event, the first of its kind, is scheduled to take place in Bethel on Saturday, May 31, 1980 at High Noon.

"The object of the 'Keg Kaper' is to have a good time and raise funds for the Telstar Sports Boosters Club to benefit all athletic programs in S. A. D. #44. The theme is easy—a good old fashioned treasure hunt. The prize is great too—a good old fashioned cold keg of beer.

The rules are simple: (1) A limit of forty (40) teams. (2) No more than four (4) people per team—all must be at least twenty (20) years old. (3) The entrance fee is $15 per team. (4) Team must have a sponsor (sponsor may be any recognized business, club, organization or group. (5) Each team must have a captain.

Each team will receive a clue which will direct them to the next clue and ultimately lead the winning team to "The Great Keg".

There will be a drawing at Mothers' on Friday, May 30, at 7:30
p. m. to determine the starting positions for each team. A team captain or a team member must be present at the draw. Following the hunt on Saturday afternoon, there will be an awards ceremony, hors d'oeuvres and a good time for all participants at Mothers'.

The team with the best uniform (costume), will be "properly recognized".

Let's have a great time for a great cause—the more the merrier. Organize your team and sign up now. Don't wait. For more information contact Jack Van Deur-sen or Mike O'Donnell.

South Woodstock

Olive Davis, Corres.

Deven Andrews entertained the Elton Records and the Northerners Tuesday night this week.

Gardening has begun at least 1 have planted the hardy vegetables and peas this last week.

Todd Poland finished getting in the slabs and piling them nicely in the shed. Now he is cutting some firewood on the upper place. The leaves just popped out this week. They are promising warmer weather.

The Ledgeview is having a food and rummage sale here at the church Sunday and Monday, 18 and 19, 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. A flea market will be held the 15th of June at the nursing home. The Willing Workers are having a table of articles on sale there at that time. Their strawberry festival has been tentatively set for July 6. The auxiliary will meet May 29 in the employees dining room. For further information contact the officers: President, Sheryl Wilbur; Vice President, Elsie Thurlow; sec., and treasurer, Sue Stevens.

The swimming pool at the Molyckett Motel has been well patronized this week. Many are taking advantage of the pools.

Olive Davis, Lettie and Carl Brooks attended the Youth meeting at West Paris Thursday.

I called on Lizzie Russ and Carla Bennett one day this week. Lizzie was wishing for more company. We should make a great effort to visit a few minutes and often with these folks in the nursing homes. They try to entertain them well by the staff, but nothing can take the place of old friends.

I made an error in Edith Bryant's address, so would like to correct it. It is Squire Hill Village, Winthrop, Maine, Apt. 3G 04367.

I need news, friends and neighbors. Please let me know of your unusual trips. Thank you. If you are doing good things let me know. If it is bad I rather not know. Okay? See you next week.

PHOTOCOMPOSITION

— Cathy O'Donnell operates the new photocomposing machine in Telstar Regional High School's graphic arts area. This machine composes words with the use of a photo unit resulting in very sharp and black letters. The machine is very versatile and is a very modern typographic process of composing copy in the printing industry. The machine contains two type faces at once and will automatically justify or center composition at first typing. An individual character, a full word or an entire line can be cancelled or corrected from the key board.

The addition of the machine to the graphic arts area gives the students another concept and experience of the graphic arts industry.

B.E.A.R.S., Inc.

(Bethel Emergency Ambulance & Rescue Service)

The E. M. T. and Advanced first aiders attended a workshop-refresher class on Sunday, May 18 from 1 to 4 p. m. Attendees were tested on emergency rescue and extrication procedures. The class then practiced surveying and preparing a "victim" for removal from accident situations of varying types.

Safety Tip of the Week—Help Save a Life.. Learn First Aid. Each year in the United States, accidents take over 100,000 lives. These Americans die from poisoning, drowning, asphyxiation, serious burns, deep wounds, etc.

Except for the quick action of concerned bystanders who know what to do in an emergency, this toll would be even higher. Taking an Advanced First Aid Course will help you know when and how to act, if you encounter a situation requiring emergency medical care. If you are interested in taking a first aid course or have a desire to become an ambulance attendant, contact training officer Arlene Greenleaf, 824-2744 or Florence Merrill, 824-2521. These instructors will give you information on the courses available in the Bethel area.

NOTES FROM Evans Notch

White Mountain National Forest

Spring is now upon us in all its glory. This is also the time for those who have a desire for something different in their diet to start searching field, swamp and forest in the manner of the late Euell Gibbons. The collector should be familiar with his plants to avoid indigestion or worse.

Riddleheads may still be found along streams and edges of swamps. Indian cucumber-roots are available most of the summer, while cat-tails are already putting young shoots above the ground. Young burdock leaves are said to make a cooked green or cooked vegetable. For those who want something closer to their front door, young dandelions (before blooming) may still be found on many a lawn and are delicious.

District campgrounds are now open. The fee at Basin, Hastings, Cold River, and Wild River is $3 per night. Campground Hosts are still needed for two campgrounds.

"Host" provides information to the public in a campground. In return, the host and his family camps free-of-charge for periods of six weeks or longer. Such an individual provides a service to the camping public when Forest Service employees are not present. For information regarding this program, contact the District Ranger.

"Pack In-Pack It Out" are the watchwords at Crocker Pond Campground this summer. Fees and garbage removal have been discontinued at Crocker Pond to conserve energy. Everyone's cooperation is requested to "Pack Out" their garbage after camping free-of-charge at Crocker Pond.

With a reduction in funds, the Senior Community Service Employment Program crew will be doing all of the maintenance in District recreation areas. Mike Kaplan continues to maintain District signs. The Gilead Picnic Area sign is a fine example of this work.

The District Young Adult Conservation Corps crew has finished work at the Town airport, the Common and Crescent Park. The crew is maintaining hiking trails in the Wild River Area.

One of the YACC enrollees, Sheryl Farrar, has prepared the following article on the YACC program:

What is YACC?

Young Adult Conservation Corps is a sometimes misunderstood but important part of the function of the United States Forest Service in Bethel, Maine and all over the USA.

YACC, for short, is a program provided for young adults from the ages of 16 to 23 regardless of sex, race, color, or national origin. It is designed for persons not currently employed and lasts 12 months. Enrollees vary in background from junior high education to individuals with college degrees. Loggers, secretaries, artists, and some who are using this as a first work experience are included in the crew at the Evans Notch Ranger District. A majority of the enrollees live in South Paris, Rumford, Bethel, and adjoining communities in Oxford County.

During the 12-month work period, the enrollees engage in useful conservation work and assist in completing projects on the National Forest or other public lands such as local towns.

The work program on the White Mountain National Forest covers areas of timber management, wildlife management, recreation, and watershed control.

Some examples of work accomplished in 1979 are 300 acres of timberland improvement, construction of nine buildings at the Bog Brook Youth Conservation Corps Camp, 30 acres of white pine seedlings planted, 111 miles of hiking trail maintained, six miles of hiking trail reconstructed, and 20 acres of wildlife habitat improvement.

Training and safety are part of the program as well as work accomplishment. Once a month YACC members are given a safety course which is conducted by personnel familiar with the work projects, first aid, firefighting, and home safety.

A CETA worker is available Wednesday 9-12, at the Bethel Savings Bank.

ART SHOW AND HISTORICAL SOCIETY RECEPTION MARK BEGINNING OF SUMMER

A combination week-end art exhibition and museum party, the Bethel area's first event on its summer calendar of activities, will take place over the coming Memorial Day week end at the Moses Mason Museum.

From noon until 4 p. m. on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, the Bethel Historical Society is sponsoring the Faye Taylor Memorial Art Show, the first in a planned annual series, and an open house reception for members, friends and people visiting the art show is to be held on Sunday afternoon to honor the 191st birthday of the home's first resident, Dr. Mason.

Exhibitions in the art show will be from M. S. A. D. #44 and Gould Academy students as well as paintings by adult artists who live in the Bethel Area and Oxford County. Student art will be judged for cash awards to be given by the Society and all artists may each submit one landscape painting in competition to win a cash award of $50 to be given by the Bethel Savings Bank which is honoring the late Mrs. Taylor. Artists wishing to enter the competition must have their work at the museum by 10 a. m. Saturday. Exhibit areas will be available in the museum and on the museum grounds.

The Moses Mason Museum will also have on display three 19th-Century paintings of Bethel scenes, one of which is on loan for the summer from Vassar College.

On Sunday, from 1-4 p. m., besides the art show, the Historical Society has invited all of its members to a special reception honoring the 191st birthday of Dr. Moses Mason (1789-1866), the first

TELSTAR HONORS BANQUET SCHEDULED FOR THURSDAY, MAY 29

Telstar's Second annual Honors and Recognition Banquet will be held on Thursday, May 29, at the Telstar Cafeteria. The banquet, instituted last year, recognizes those students who excel in the classrooms at the high school. Certificates and pins will be presented to students for attaining honor roll status for all three quarters, and certificates for outstanding achievement will be given to students by each of the departments at Telstar. owner of the 1813 house which is now the Society's museum. Highlights of this reception will be refreshments, craft and art demonstrations located throughout the Mason home, guides and a host and hostess dressed in period costume.

To start the Sunday afternoon reception, Kent and Bruce Taylor, sons of the former Society member for whom the art show is named, will officially open the exhibition with a ribbon cutting ceremony before special display of four paintings by the late artist which have been donated to the exhibit by the Taylor family.

Anyone interested in obtaining free copies of the remainder of the summer calendar of events in the Bethel area may do so by contacting the Chamber of Commerce.

FOOD STAMP EDUCATION TRAINING MEETING HELD AT SOUTH PARIS

Twenty-five representatives from Androscoggin Home Health, Tri-County W.I.C., Western Old Citizens Council, Oxford County Community Services, and Cooperative Extension Services participated in the Food Stamp education training meeting in South Paris.

Ellen Garrahe, Nutritionist, pointed out that 50% of Food Stamp recipients are children under 18 and 20% are elderly. Ms. Garrahe reviewed food shopping tips and encouraged the participants to help Food Stamp recipients to continue improving their shopping skills to become "wise consumers". She discussed how adults learn best and stressed the importance of a single concept message each time nutrition educators and Outreach workers meet with clients.

All Oxford County Food Stamp families are eligible to meet with an Extension Nutrition Aide in their home. Nutrition Aides, employed by the Cooperative Extension Service, teach families food budgeting, meal planning, cooking skills, basic nutrition, food storage, and food preservation. Stephanie Knight, Extension Agent, said that 80% of the families Nutrition Aides visit are receiving food stamps. The Extension nutrition education program started in Ox-
